

GREG LITSTER

Greg Litster is president and founder of SAFEChecks, and is editor of Frank Abagnale's fraud Bulletin, Check Fraud, Embezzlement, Cyber Crime, Holder in Due Course and Identity Theft.

Mr. Litster is a former banker of 18 years, has written articles published in AFP Exchange, American Payroll Association, American Land Title Association, and Sheshunoff's Corporate Cash Management Manual. He has served as an expert witness on several national and international check fraud and embezzlement cases, and has spoken on fraud prevention across the country.

Mr. Litster earned a Bachelor of Science in Economics and a Master of Business Administration, both from Brigham Young University.