

KATHLEEN PARTIN

Kathleen Partin is the Special Administrator on the escrow law. Her responsibilities include the approval and issuance of escrow licenses, the processing of main office surrenders, the referral of administrative actions and the determination of employment eligibility of those with criminal histories. Kathleen also works with the Department's Office of Law and Policy on law and rule making issues, participates on the Escrow Advisory Committee, holds training seminars for licensees and corporation examiners and testifies at hearings.

Kathleen is a CPA.